Dear Mr. Bade,

Inadvertently my wife sent you the price list you asked for before I had time to write.

Thanks for the offer of a call but there is nothing special on my mind and I try to spend what time I have working on the FOIA cases so I can end them and get back to writing.

It was KDKA. I'd declined earlier because I had promised to ~~th~~ do the Pacifica show I referred to on Hirth.

I was not able to hear all of the Pacifica broadcast because I was hanging on the phone, which was cut off on sound intermittently and was not clear otherwise. However, a friend sent me a tape and I've listened to it. The first caller was a marine who confirmed that Oswald's work required crypto, which required top secret, and still does. Rather it is still crypto and that requires top secret today, too.

Best wishes,
